

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HAER
ORE
18-KLAF
1B-

KLAMATH BASIN PROJECT, LOST RIVER DIVERSION DAM HOUSE
Lost River near intersection of State Hwy. 140 and Hill Rd.
Klamath Falls vicinity
Klamath County
Oregon

HAER No. OR-90-B

Patriek Welch, Photographer

November 11, 1997

- OR-90-B-1 Overview of the Lost River Diversion Dam House complex, showing house, workshop, and landscaping. Portions of the Lost River Diversion Dam visible to left, background of the house. Facing northwest.
- OR-90-B-2 Overview of the Lost River Diversion Dam House complex taken from west edge of horseshoe-shaped Lost River Diversion Dam. Interior of east side of dam in the foreground. Facing East.
- OR-90-B-3 Rear of the Lost River Diversion Dam House, facing southwest.
- OR-90-B-4 Side of the Lost River Diversion Dam House, facing northwest.
- OR-90-B-5 Front of the Lost River Diversion Dam House, facing northeast.
- OR-90-B-6 Side of the Lost River Diversion Dam House, facing southeast.
- OR-90-B-7 Oblique view of workshop, facing east.
- OR-90-B-8 Historic photo taken during construction of the Lost River Diversion Dam and House. Labeled as follows, "View showing walk construction North side. Group in foreground, left to right: - J.M. McLean, I.S. Voorhees, Asst Eng'r, A.B. Cleveland, engineer... W.W. Patch, Project Engineer." Negative # 95. Facing east.
- OR-90-B-9 Historic photo taken April 10, 1913 showing house, workshop, barn, another unknown structure, and the Lost River Diversion Dam. Looking northeast.